Privacy Policy

Last updated: September 2, 2026

AMBER STUDIO (“we”, “us”, or “our”) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, and protect information when you visit or use our website.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect information that you voluntarily provide to us, including your name, email address, telephone number, company name, and any other information you choose to submit through contact forms or other communication channels on our website.

We may also automatically collect certain technical information when you visit our website, such as your IP address, browser type, device information, operating system, pages visited, and general information about how you interact with the website.

2. How We Use Your Information

We may use the information we collect to:

- respond to your enquiries and requests;
- communicate with you regarding our services;
- provide and improve our website and services;
- understand how visitors use our website;
- maintain website security and prevent misuse;
- comply with applicable legal obligations.

We will not use your personal information for purposes that are incompatible with those described in this Privacy Policy without obtaining your consent where required by applicable law.

3. Cookies and Analytics

Our website may use cookies and similar technologies to ensure its proper operation, remember preferences, analyse website traffic, and improve the user experience.

Where required by applicable law, we will request your consent before using non-essential cookies.

You can manage or disable cookies through your browser settings. Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality of the website.

4. Sharing of Information

We do not sell or rent your personal information.

We may share information with trusted service providers who assist us in operating our website, hosting services, analytics, communications, or other business functions. Such providers may process personal information only as necessary to provide their services and in accordance with applicable data protection requirements.

We may also disclose information where required by law or where necessary to protect our legal rights, website, users, or property.

5. Data Retention

We retain personal information only for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected, to maintain business records, resolve disputes, comply with legal obligations, or enforce our agreements.

6. Data Security

We take reasonable technical and organisational measures to protect personal information against unauthorised access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction.

However, no method of transmission or storage over the internet can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

7. Your Rights

Depending on your location and applicable law, you may have rights regarding your personal information, including the right to request access to, correction or deletion of your information, restriction of processing, or objection to certain processing activities.

Where processing is based on your consent, you may withdraw that consent at any time.
